Greetings

T IS with regret that we say farewell to our High School days — days filled with work and pleasure. Our associations, our friendships, our successes, our sometimes failures will always remain a happy memory.

We now turn to the future, to greater work and greater achievements, knowing that whatever success awaits us, the foundation was laid at the old Salem High.

With an affectionate goodbye to the Class of '30, The Wolverine extends cordial greetings and good wishes to the Class of '31.

To
MR. ROBERT W. HOUSE
OUR PRINCIPAL

With respect for his firmness of character, his high ideals, and his sympathetic understanding of Youth, we affectionately dedicate this volume of

HOWE TALLEY

"An all-round good fellow, possessing many merits."
Baseball '29-'30; Football '30; Monogram '30; President Senior Class; Student Council '30.

The next best thing to being a shining light at school is having a brilliant classmate, and such is our Class President. What a wise choice we made when we elected him to office. He is a good student possessing many friends, joining in all school activities especially athletics, and is always ready for a lark. We predict a great future for him.

MARY VIRGINIA WHITE

"To see her is to love her."
Member of Glee Club '27-'28; Girl's Club '26-'27-'28; Latin Club '27-'28; Secretary of Flower Club '28-'29; Historian of Junior Class '28-'29; Staff of Wolverine '29-'30; Secretary of Student Council '29; Editor-in-Chief of Year-Book '30; Secretary of Senior Class.

Mary Virginia is the possessor of one of the broadest and best-balanced minds in our class. We all admire the way in which she tackles a job and perseveres until it is done. She is one of the most popular Seniors, being an excellent student and always willing to give classmates a helping hand. Success will surely crown her efforts.

MARY ELMER ATKINSON

"Give to the world the best that you have,
And the best will come back to you."

Glee Club '26-'27; Girl's Club '27-'28; Flower Club '28-'29.

Mary has been with us for the full four years. She is the very essence of good humor and is continually surprising us with her wit. In her more quiet hours she settles down to hard study—and with all that she has some time left for Roanoke College.

LEWIS BALLARD

"I like to play ring-around-the-rosy."

Local History Club '28; Debating Club '29.

Lewis has two hobbies: Girls and shows. To attend the latter, he will even stop writing his Chemistry papers, which he enjoys very much. Lewis has loads of school spirit. His ambition is to become an architect. We hope that success will be his.

KELLEY BARNARD

"I admire a man with a head of his own."

Vice-President Commercial Club '29; Science Club '27.

Kelley is talented and works hard for what he gets. He has made good grades in high school and we are sure that the future has much in store for him.

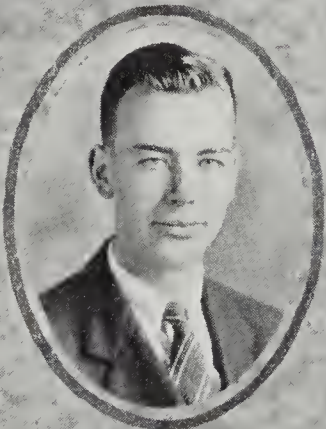

THOMAS A. BARNARD

"Manners make the man."

Biology Club '28; Orchestra '28-'29-'30; Reading Contest '30; Literary Society '30.

He has a luxurious marcelle which grows above a brain which thinks straight and deep. Thomas has been a great help in our Orchestra and we hardly know what we would have done without him.

MELVIN LAWRENCE BARNETT

"By the work one knows the workman."

Science Club '28; Vice-President Bird Club '29.

"Puny" is one of our most regular Seniors and while he never seems to worry he can be depended upon. He faces the world with a brave heart and a pair of honest blue eyes.

TRESSIE BEHELER

"Not too sober, not too gay,
A real friend in every way."

Glee Club '27; Girls' Club '27; Dramatic Club '28; Basket Ball '27-28; Pep Club '29; Treasurer Home Economics Club '30.

Here's to Tressie—the "happy-go-lucky" girl of the Class of '30. With her sweet, cheerful disposition she has won our hearts. She is a true friend to all who know her. May good luck always be with you, Tressie.

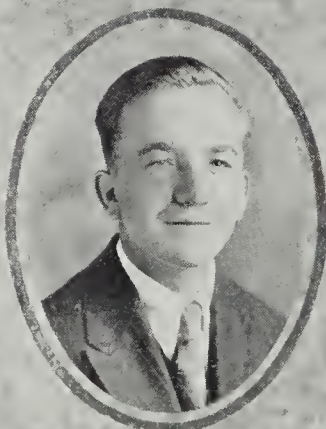

BEN BLACK

"Good nature and good sense are good companions."

Latin Club '27-28; Local History Club '28-'29.

Ben is a genius in the art of obtaining good grades without much effort. He has been an outstanding member of our class all of the way through. We know that a successful career is in store for him.

HERMAN BOBBITT

"'Tis well to be witty and wise"

Baseball '29-'30; Debating Club '29.

Herman is the fun of the classroom and of his fellow students. Herman always places the business of being a student before pleasure, and as his reward his report cards show only A's and B's.

ETHEL BOWER

"Laugh and the world laughs with you."

Home Economics Club '27-'28; Biology Club '27

Ethel has been ever ready to comfort and help in distress, to rejoice over good news and to laugh with the rest. Her sunny hair and merry brown eyes, her happy smile and her great, unselfish spirit will be forever remembered by her legion of friends.

VIRGINIA E. BOWER

"Slow but sure."

Scrap Book Club '26; Home Economics Club '27; Glee Club '26.

Plucky, game, cheerful—those are the words which seem to characterize "Jim." Even when terrified to the point of frenzy after every test and exam on her best friend, English, she is always ready for fun. Virginia enjoys life and what it has to offer.

YONCIE BROWN

"As merry as the day is long."

Debating Club '23; Declamation Club '29.

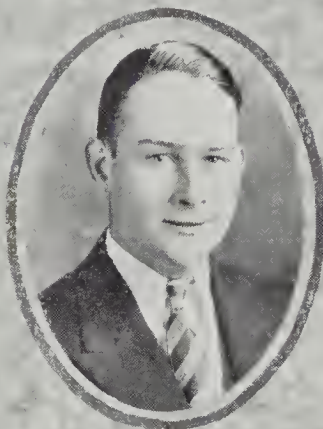

We don't know what Yoncic would do if he couldn't pull his wise cracks. He never seems to worry even when things go dead wrong. Keep it up, Yoncic!

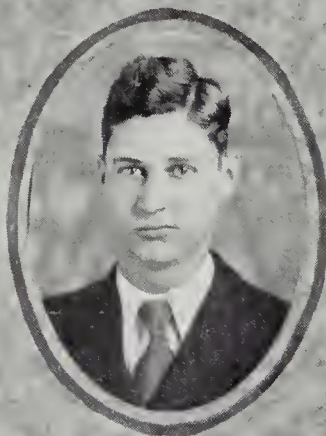

LEONARD O. BRUBAKER

"Behold the Shiek himself."

Glee Club '27; Biology Club '28; Local History '29.

Leonard is thoroughly dependable and a most loyal friend. Who knows? His happy carefree way is probably the best after all.

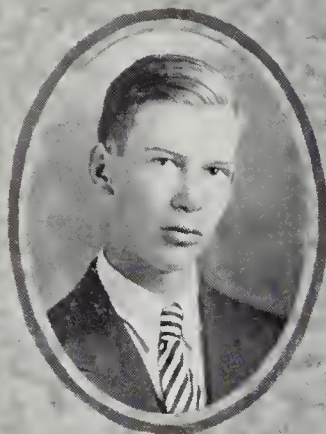

GORDON BRYANT

"Happy am I, from care I'm free."

Science Club '27-'28; Glee Club '27; Secretary Bird Club '27.

"Monkey" is one of those fellows you just can't help liking. He has a winning smile that manages to get him 'most anything he wants. We're wishing you success, Monkey.

PAUL CALLOWAY

"With a heart for any fate."

Vice-President Science Club '29; Varsity Basketball '29-'30.

Paul, better known as "Rick," is liked by everybody. He has proved his worth to "Ole Salem" in many ways. We hope he will continue his work in college and we predict a great future for him.

LENA DARNELL

"Silence is deep as Eternity."

Glee Club '26-'27; Commercial Club '27-'28; Secretary of Commercial Club '28.

The above maxim must be Lena's motto, because she certainly practices it. We think it would be better if a few more of us believed this, at times.

MARGARETTA HESTER DAVIS

"Few things are impossible to diligence."

Glee Club '27; Commercial Club '28-'29.

Margaretta is quiet until the whistle for basketball and we see her then in the middle of every play. In fact, Margaretta succeeds in everything she undertakes.

JULIUS DARDEN

"Our general handy-man."

Every class has its leader. "Dooley" is ours. It seems as though we are going to lose him soon, because he "sho'ly" does like Lynchburg.

OPAL BEATRICE DEATON

"As modest as the violet in her ways."

Girls' Club '23; Kangaroo Club '23-'29.

Opal is studious and quiet, and spends her time for the bettering of her mental faculties. When a question is asked you can always depend on Opal's answering it. Her predominating ambition is to become a teacher. Luck to you!

PHYLLIS DENIT

"Hope for the best and trust to luck for the rest."

Girl's Reserve '27; Flower Club '29; Biology Club '28.

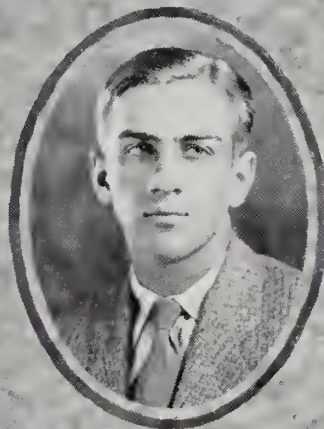

Phyllis, better known as "Chub," is the embodiment of mischief. Her gay, ceaseless chatter is always heard above the rest. "Chub" is expecting to make her mark in spite of her troubles in math. Here's hoping!

MISSOURI DIVERS

"'Tis the quiet people who are happiest and get the most done."

Glee Club '27; Latin Club '28; Flower Club '29.

Missouri has made excellent grades during her high school days. She is always willing to give help whenever help is needed. We couldn't get along without Missouri.

FRANCES DILLARD

"School spirit and plenty of it."

Member of Girls' Club '26-'27-'28; Glee Club '26-'27; Commercial Club '27-'28; Dramatic Club '28-'29.

If you want to find plenty of school spirit just find Frances. She always takes a part in all school activities and makes them very "peppy" by her presence. Frances digs, but assimilates what she digs. She will make good.

MARIAN M. DILLARD

"I know a secret!"

Glee Club '26-'27; Girls' Club '26-'27.

It was unfortunate for us that Marian should spend her Sophomore and Junior years at Peace. In her Senior year she came back to us and has readily taken her place among us again. Marian's nature is inclined to be social, rather than academic, but she is by no means a poor student.

MARY ELIZABETH DRISCOLL

"She is shy, solemn, and sweet."

Member of Latin Club '28; Flower Club '29.

Mary Elizabeth, although endowed with a gentle voice, is usually silent. It is useless for her to worry about her grades because she always gets good ones. Her ambition is unknown, but her well-wishing classmates feel assured of her future.

MANILLA EARLES

"She has a manner that is gentle and refined."

Glee Club '26; Commercial Club '27-'28.

Manilla is truly "gentle and refined." She spends much of her time thinking of a big Senior who seemingly returns her affections.

SYLVIA ELLER

"A funny little giggle, a cute little smile, Remind me of Sylvia, all the while."

Glee Club '25-'27; Girls' Club '26-'27; Girls' Basket Ball '27; Commercial Club '27-'28.

Sylvia is one of our "small Seniors" whom everyone knows by her jokes and laughter. She is another one of our Basket Ball girls who won a letter in '28. Her future is uncertain, but we all wish her the best o' luck!

REGINA HELEN EQUI

"Impulsive, eager, prompt to act,
And make her generous thought a fact."

Regina does not seem to let life disturb her much; not even Democracy tests excite her. She must see the funny side of a great many things for she is always laughing. Her chief peculiarity is her fondness for Shorthand, although she is often heard to say, "This shorthand is terrible! I can't read a word of it." Good luck to you, Regina!

MARGARET W. FRY

"Sometimes I sit and think Sometimes I just sit."

Glee Club '26-'27, '27-'28; Girls' Club '26-'27, '27-'28; Home Economics Club '27-'28; Flower Club '28-'29; Student Council '29-'30; Senior Play '29-'30; Editor-in-Chief of Year Book '30.

Margaret is never a slacker in any of our Senior activities and is always ready to give them her earnest support. During the four years that we have known her, we have found her to be a faithful friend and diligent classmate. We do not know Margaret's future ambition, but we wish her great success in life.

HAZEL DARDEN GARRETT

"I love her for her smile, her look, her way of speaking gently."

Home Economics Club '27-'28; Commercial Club '28; Glee Club '26.

Hazel's ambition is to be a nurse. She will need plenty of "patience." She makes good grades and you should hear her in Mr. Snapp's English Class.

KATHLEEN GARST

"Life's a jest and all things show it
I thought it once and now I know it."

Home Economics Club '27-'28; Science Club '28; Glee Club '27.

"Skinny" is a good sport who never grouches over her lessons, except when she has an English paper to write up. We wish her the best of luck because she certainly deserves it.

MARY JANE GIVENS

"Those lovely eyes
The windows of the soul."

Glee Club '27; Latin Club '28; Secretary Bird Club '29.

One could not know Mary Jane and not like her. She is always ready to help us in our school activities. There is a certain young man in the school who thinks her brown eyes are lovely. Watch him, Mary Jane!

WILLIAM O. GOODWIN

"Bill with all of his wit
Has made with us a real hit."

Dramatic Club '28-'29, '27-'28; Treasurer of Senior Class; Business Manager of "The Wolverine"; Treasurer of Junior Class; Glee Club '27-'28.

"Bill" has been one of the outstanding members of our class especially as a business man. He was one of the main props of our paper. We do not know what S. H. S. will do for a business manager after "Bill" graduates. We wonder whose Ford will be the Salem Hi jitney next year?

EDWIN V. HAYDEN

"Small but mighty."

Public Speaking '27-'28-'29-'30; Midget Basket Ball '30; Sport Editor of "The Wolverine"; Literary Society '29-'30; Business Manager of "Year Book"; Senior Class Play; Valedictorian of Class.

Edwin is a good debater and he usually wins even over Mr. Snapp. He is an excellent student and a good sport. We all know that he will be a great author some day.

CHRISTINE HOWARD

"Always happy, never blue,
Just a friend who is always true."

Glee Club '26-'27; Girl's Club '27-'28; Latin Club '28; Flower Club '29; Secretary Home Economics Club '30.

"Chris"—always smiling and willing to help. Her winning personality and activity in school work have contributed to her success in Salem High School.

MARGARET L. HORNE

"A heart ever true and full of fun
She talked and laughed and danced and sung."

"Jake" is one of our most popular Seniors. If you want to find her just go where there is a crowd and a piano, and she will be right there. She is going to specialize in music, and we are sure that some day she will even surpass Paderewski.

WILLIAM TERRILL HURT

"Give me time and plenty of it."

Glee Club '27; Latin Club '28; Secretary Latin Club '29.

Terrill has been with the class from the first grade. He takes life as it comes. Nothing quickens his pace. An E on English exam wouldn't excite Terrill!

ISABELLE KESLER

"A lovely girl so sweet and fair."

Glee Club '27; Girls' Club '27-'28; Pep Club '29; Latin Club '28; Literary Society '30; Captain Basket Ball '28-'29.

Beauty and brains go together with Isabelle. She is full of pep and school spirit. She is the kind of a girl who is everyone's friend. Luck to you!

KATHERINE TARDY LOGAN

"A jolly, capable girl, not found every day."

Girl Reserve '26-'27; Biology '27-'28; Flower Club '28-'29; Secretary of Junior Class; Staff of "The Wolverine" '29-'30.

Katherine is our entertainment committee, and she knows her business well. She has a nimble wit which drives away the blues even on a rainy day, and which also exhausts the teacher's patience when she wants a quiet study period. We always prefer Katherine's chatter to tiresome books.

KELLER MARTIN

"If she had any faults she left us in doubt
At least in four years we couldn't find them out."

Biology Club '26-'27-'28; Home Economics Club '28-'29.

Keller is a quiet, unassuming girl, and has been a good student in Salem Hi. Everybody knows "Kelly's" jolly little laugh and she is always the same. We know that whatever she does she will have plenty of success in the future.

JOSEPHINE MAXWELL

"Lovely brown eyes and a charming smile."

Latin Club '27-'28; Flower Club '28-'29; Home Economics Club '30.

"Jo" is as quiet as a mouse and is loved by everybody. She is an excellent student; an addition to any class. We know that one person in our class thinks even more nice things about her than we have space to write.

VIRGINIA MOORE

"Foolish vanity is unknown to thee."

Basket Ball '28; Secretary Commercial Club.

Virginia has been a very faithful student through her four years of high school. One who knows her personally will find that she is a bright, intelligent girl with a pleasing personality. Virginia has a very optimistic attitude toward life in general. She might be called a moving picture "fan."

EDITH McGRADY

"She is sweet, solemn and shy."

Glee Club '26; Literary Society '27; Flower Club '28.

Edith has been an example of modesty and kindness to her more boisterous classmates. She always goes calmly on her way, determined to accomplish what she undertakes and we have never known her to fail. We know she will continue to succeed, so—here's to Edith!

DOW NELSON McGRADY

"I do know him by his gait."

F. F. A. '27-'28, '28-'29, '29-'30.

Dow stands high in all his classes and his knowledge of Math often astounds his struggling classmates. He has proved his ability in Salem High; likewise he will prove it at college and, finally, become a most successful lawyer.

JOHN WILLIAM MORGAN

"A man of few words, but lofty aspirations."

Agriculture Club '29.

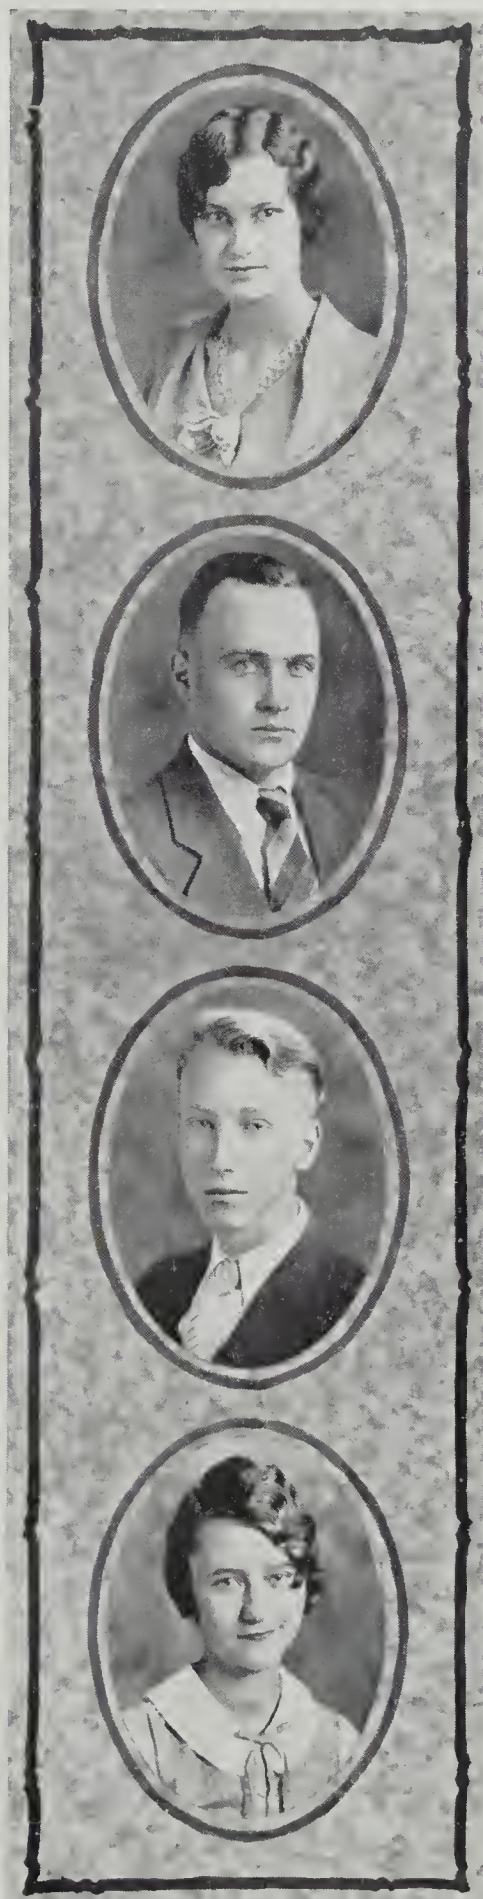

John is a quiet person and a hard worker. His greatest ambition is to own and run a big dairy and all of his activities are being directed toward this goal.

CHRISTINE FRANCES MOYER

"A merry heart, a happy smile!"

Girl Reserve '26; Biology '27; Flower Club '29; Home Economics Club '30.

Frances always has a come-back of pleasant sarcasm that keeps us wondering, "What next?" She has not decided whether she is going to college or not, but we are sure that whatever the task may be, Frances will succeed.

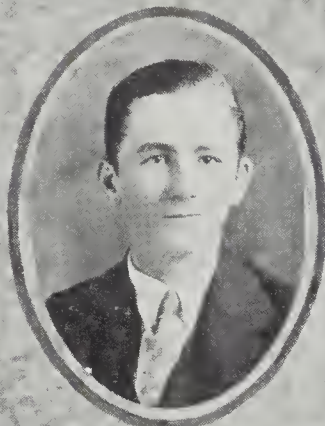

AURELIA OAKEY

"A cheerful life devoid of care;
A happy laugh heard everywhere."

"Here she comes, there she goes"—that's Aurelia—a synonym for good spirit, pep and vivacity! Aurelia attended Salem Hi while a "rat" and after attending Jefferson High for two years she returned to graduate with her class—the class of '30. Here's wishing her the best o' luck in life and love!

ROY B. OBENCHAIN

"A little body doth often harbor a great soul."

Glee Club '26-'27; Science Club '27-'28; Local History Club '28-'29.

How can we tell what Roy expects to do when he talks so little? But he can't keep us from seeing his ability—you should see him work a Trig problem that is much longer than he is!

RICHARD B. PERSINGER

"What is life if not fun?
I count a day ill-spent that's seen no work of mischief done."

Latin Club '27-'28; Debating Club '29; Orchestra '28-'30; Literary Society '30; Debating Team '30; Senior Play '30.

"Dick" is not often seen without a smile on his face. Maybe it is because he has mastered the art of getting good grades without apparent study. Although rather quiet, except when he laughs, he has a habit of making a success of everything he undertakes. His besetting sins are tooting the clarinet and playing practical jokes.

RACHEL PETERS

"Wit and laughter
All follow after."

Glee Club '26-'27; Girls' Club '26-'27; Girls' Basket Ball '26-'27; Commercial Club '27-'28; Home Economics '29-'30.

Rachel, a dark haired Senior, with plenty of vivacity. She is very fond of athletics; and is also the last one of the six girls who won sweaters in the Girls Basket Ball Team of '27. May bad luck follow you all the days of your life, but never overtake you.

NORMAN HOYT PLUNKETT

"Joke and the world jokes with you."

Dramatic Club '28; Literary Society '30; Agricultural Club '27; Joke Editor of The Wolverine '29-'30.

Hoyt is refined and dignified. His ambition is to write stories and see the world. We wish you much success in your adventure.

ROBERT V. PRESTON

"What's the use of worrying?"

Commercial Club '27-'28; Local History Club '29.

School spirit and an eye for fun are two of his characteristics. "Lollie" seems to have a fondness for small vacations. He wanders away just anytime for a week or more—forgetting how hard it is to "catch up" again.

ELIZABETH R. REAMEY

"If she had any faults, she has left us in doubt."

Glee Club '26-'27; Home Economics Club '27; Science Club '28; Bird Club '29.

Nature has blessed Elizabeth with quite an irresistible combination of deep blue eyes and dark brown hair. We predict that the combination will soon prove fatal to some fine young man. "Reamey" is an all-round good sport, never too busy to lend a hand, or enjoy a good joke.

JOHN HAROLD RETTINGER

"A real gentleman, a true friend."

Biology Club '28; Agriculture Club '27-'28, '29-'30; Agriculture Judging Team '29; President F. F. V. Club '30.

The "blues" and Harold are never found in the same company. His cheery smile is quite contagious. We all recognize this classmate as one of the most likable and dependable members of our "school family." There goes Harold, on his errand for another—with his smile.

HAZEL I. RICHARDSON

"Let her live a hundred years. We want her on earth."

Glee Club '26-'27; Latin Club '27; Flower Club '28-'29; Home Economics Club '29-'30.

She is all this; and add to this the willingness to carry out any plan that promises fun. Hazel is not a book-worm, but when she studies it counts. We depend on her clear, sound judgment to help put things over.

RUTH E. RICHARDSON

"For Nature made her what she is,
And never made another."

Girl's Club '28; Science Club '28; Commercial Club '28-'29; Glee Club '27.

We see success written after her name "right now." Ruth likes basket ball and all kinds of athletics. Who knows, maybe she will be a director some day.

GRACE ROBEY

"Unto thy friends you're always so kind,
Lovely and brilliant is thy purest mind."

President of Commercial Club '29.

Grace is a good little pal. She's always quiet and reserved as all dignified Seniors should be. She does excellent school work and is highly esteemed by her classmates and teachers.

PAULINE ROUTH

"Make new friends, keep the old,
These are silver, these are gold."

Girl's Club '26-'27; Commercial Club '27-'28; Home Economics Club '29-'30.

Here's to Pauline! May she always be as successful in the future as she has been in her school days. She is liked by everyone and will be missed at S. H. S.

LORNA MARIE SHELTON

"All things are possible to diligence and skill."

Glee Club '27; Short Story Club '28; Basket Ball '28; Baseball '29; Literary Society '30; Debating Team '30; Staff '30.

Lorna has quite a talent for short-story work. She even enjoys writing long hard English papers. The class of 1930 expects great things of you, Lorna!

STEVEN T. SHELTON

"All his faults are such that one loves him still the better for them."

Vice-President Biology Club '27-'28; President F. F. V. '27-'28; Agriculture Judging Team '28; Monogram Club '29-'30; Football '28-'29.

Steve came to us from the country but quickly made himself well known to the whole school by his quietly aggressive personality. His good humor and his splendid athletic abilities, which have endeared him to all Salem High, should do as much for him in college next year.

H. CLINTON SHOCKEY, JR.

"He can win in talk."

Bird Club '28-'29.

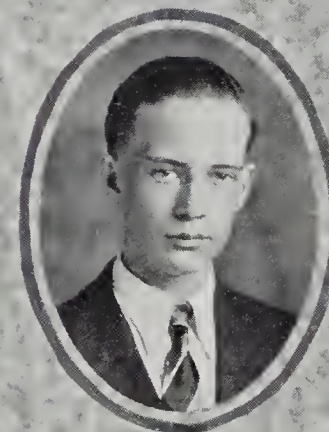

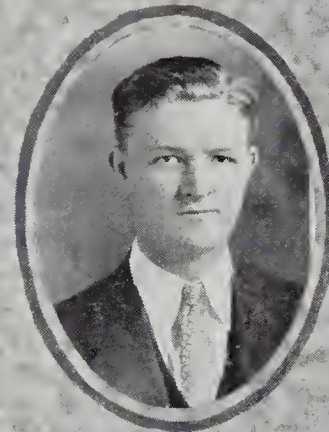

Clinton has been with us only two years but in that time we have learned that whatever he undertakes he successfully completes. His record is good, especially in math. We are glad it falls to his lot to graduate from Salem Hi.

GALEN R. SHOWALTER

"A cheery smile leads to the road of success."

Biology Club '28; Agriculture Club '27-'28-'29-'30.

A good classmate has been with us since 1926. "Peter" always has a cheery smile for everyone he meets. That smile will encourage many a struggling farmer when Galen, as the head of the Department of Agriculture in Washington, is helping him to derive some of the profit enjoyed by the "Middle Man."

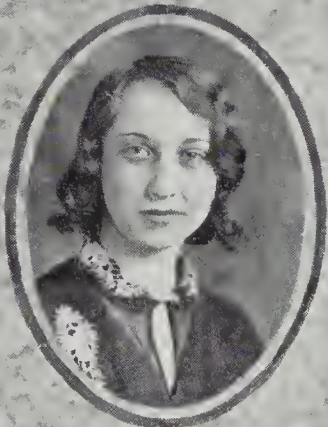

GAYNELLE SHUMATE

"Her glossy hair was clustered o'er a brow bright with intelligence."

Commercial Club '28-'29; Basket Ball '28; Baseball '29; Literary Society '30.

Gay's work in the commercial department has been good—and we should not be surprised to hear of her writing "tardy excuses" in some Principal's office next year.

LYDIA BEATRICE SIGMON

"A true friend is—Beatie."

Glee Club '26-'27; Girl's Club '26-'27; Chairman of Program Committee Commercial Club '27-'28; Vice-President Home Economics Club '29-'30.

Beatrice, an attractive Senior, is better known to her intimate friends as "Beatie." She is a good sport and can be depended upon to do her share of the hard work. Her future lies in the Beauty Cultural Profession but if she later finds that she does not like this work she can easily get a position as "home-maker." My! how she can cook!

HAZEL IRIS SMILEY

"She is a winsome wee thing."

Glee Club '27; Biology Club '28; Girl's Club '27-'28; Flower Club '28-'29.

This dark-haired, blue-eyed maiden is quite a student, though one wouldn't suspect it by her happy-go-lucky attitude. She plays while she plays, works while she works and, incidentally, flirts while she flirts.

DOROTHY ST. CLAIR

"A friend in need is a friend indeed."

Glee Club '26-'27; Commercial Club '28-'29.

Dorothy, unlike most decided brunettes, is very quiet and even demure. She is, like all the St. Clairs, very capable in every line of work. Her future lies in the study of music. We all hope for her success in whatever she may undertake.

ALVUS W. THOMAS

"No one but himself can be his parallel."

Glee Club '26-'27; Commercial Club '28.

Alvus is taking the commercial course in school and we hope that he will make a success of it as his life work. "Thomas" is liked by everyone and in the years he has been with us has shown real ability.

LEWIS THOMAS

"I will find a way or make one."

F. F. V. '28-'29-'30.

Lewis knows all about hard work—he takes it as it comes and never complains. The future farmers of Virginia will profit by Lewis' rich experience gained so early in life.

FRED TRULL

"Obedience, diligence, courage,
These are among the characteristics that make the real man."

Agricultural Club '29-'30; Biology Club '28.

Fred often startles us with his remarkable answers, which are usually correct. We are surprised that one head can hold all he knows. He expects to go to V. P. I. next year.

RICHARD W. WALROND

"The longer I live the more I learn."

Agriculture Club '27-'28-'29-'30; Biology '28.

Richard's ambition is to be a farmer. Look at his grades in agriculture! We predict that in 1940 not all farmers will be crying "hard times."

JOHN CHAPMAN WATSON

"I strive for higher things."

Glee Club '27; Latin Club '27-'28; Secretary Debating Club '28-'29; President Literary Society '29-'30; Debating Team '30; Business Manager of Orchestra; Year Book Staff '30; Senior Play '30.

Gay, versatile, Jack, with his characteristic "grin." To this happy and ever enthusiastic fellow, all of us owe many enjoyable hours of school life. Under his dashing, careless nature, lies a firm competency that is seldom baffled.

CLARENCE WERTZ

"Why worry with the puzzles of life?"

Biology Club '27; Science Club '28.

Clarence is rather slow but he always manages to come through somehow in the end. You can always depend upon him for things you want done. Luck to you Clarence!

LEWIS WERTZ

"His worth is never denied."

Debating Club '28; Glee Club '26.

Lewis is one of those persons who is always willing to do his part, no matter what comes up. He is very original. In "Trig" he never works the problems like the others but he always come out right in the end.

THOMAS F. WEST, JR.

"He performed all kinds of service with a noble ease that graced the lowliest act in doing it."

Latin Club '28; Football '28-'29-'30; Monogram Club '30; Baseball '29-'30; Dramatic Club '29; Literary Society '30; Debating '30; Senior Play '30.

Tom is the Class of '30's synonym for versatility. Whether it be in scholarship, football, baseball, or debating, Tom is sure to be found among the best.

HELEN WILLIAMS

"With a jest on her tongue and a smile on her lips,
She's bubbling with fun to her finger tips."

Basket Ball '26-'27; Latin Club '27; Flower Club '28.

"Red" is always looking on the bright side. She spreads sunshine as she goes, and is welcomed everywhere.

MARY EDWINA WOLFENDEN

"Better late than never."

Glee Club '26-'27; Girl's Club '26-'27-'28; Biology Club '28-'29; Chairman Program Committee Flower Club '29; Assistant Editor "The Wolverine."

Everyone knows "Wenna" as a dandy sport and a sincere friend. She is a typical "Senior" with lots of school spirit. After leaving S. H. S. she is going to be someone's secretary. Lucky man!

MILDRED MAC DONALD WOOD

"A lovely lady, garmented in light from her own beauty."

Treasurer of Pep Club '28-'29; Literary Society '29-'30; Vice-President Senior Class; Senior Play '30.

Mildred has been with us only two years and has won a place in the heart of each classmate with her striking personality. Though the number of pretty girls in the class is not small, Mildred can certainly be counted among the first.

LUCILLE WOODY

"The only way to have a friend is to be one."

Glee Club '27; Girl's Club '28; Basket Ball '28; Latin Club '23; Home Economics Club '29-'30.

Lucille is a friend to all and is well liked in Salem Hi. She has been with us all through high school and although she talks incessantly and keeps her teachers busy she'll make a wonderful "Tillie" for some wealthy employer. Here's to you, Lucille!

FRANK L. YARBROUGH

"Up! Up! my friend and quit your books."

Biology Club '28; Vice-President Local History Club '29.

Frank is a willing worker and we know that the future awaits him with a great career. While he has not been a "shining light" in school he has always had the "sticking" qualities that have brought him through.

CLASS WILL

KATHERINE LOGAN

*W*E, THE Senior Class of 1930, of Salem High School, Salem, Virginia, on this, the ninth day of May, do make our last Will and Testament. In bequeathing our treasured possessions, we hope the heirs will not consider the responsibility greater than the benefits conferred. We especially stipulate that this Will must not be contested. All persons attempting to do so must forfeit their bequests.

Item I.—To Mr. House: Our most hearty thanks for the kind assistance he has shown us and the high ideals he has set before us during our Senior Year.

Item II.—To Mrs. James: Automatic lights to keep the traffic from being so congested in the halls.

Item III.—To Miss Webb: A club to assist her in strict division of classes when group pictures are taken. Also our deepest appreciation for her wonderful help in our Year Book.

Item IV.—Miss McConkey: A scarecrow to ward off thieves from our tulip bed. Also our deep appreciation for her interest in our Senior Class.

Item V.—To Mr. Denton: An intelligent French Class for next year.

Item VI.—To Miss Solmon: A book of instructions from which to learn the art of operating a certain local sedan.

Item VII.—To Miss Woodson: A year's subscription to "The Literary Digest" whereby she may keep in touch with current events.

Item VIII.—To Miss Corbitt: A device by which she may secure solemn stillness as she sounds the depths of European history.

Item IX.—To Miss Darden: We will her complete control over all Rice manufacturing companies.

Item X.—To Miss Harveycutter: A brace for keeping her head high in the air while trailing the halls.

Item XI.—To Mr. Snapp: A set of law books to assist in philosophical arguments. Thanks for his strenuous effort in preparing us for college.

Item XII.—To Miss Slusser: Our hope that in the near future she may obtain a well-equipped laboratory.

Item XIII.—To Miss Fulton: Our regrets that we have not had the privilege of being longer under her leadership.

Item XIV.—To Mrs. Pedigo: A book of quotations to make all pupils more familiar with the classics.

Item XV.—To Mr. Farley: A family of little "bluebirds" so he can enlarge his faculty transportation for next winter.

Item XVI.—To Mr. Bruce: Our grateful appreciation for the inspiration received in his class room.

Item XVII.—To Mr. Burke: Our hope that his "farmers" may become rich with the knowledge of the soil. In addition thanks for his kind assistance in our Year Book.

Item XVIII.—To Mrs. Strickler: Our regrets that we have had no classes under her.

Item XIX.—To the Juniors: Our many privileges, arduous tasks and our right to toil in Senior English.

Item XX.—To the Sophomores: Our hope that they will forget their childish ways and assume the dignity rightly belonging to Juniors.

Item XXI.—To the Freshmen: Best wishes—greatly needed after a hectic year.

Item XXII.—To the Faculty: The hope that they can exist without the dignified help of the class of 1930.

Item XXIII.—To the Literary Society: Our thanks for the high honor brought to Salem Hi through their hard work.

Item XXIV.—To the Athletic Association: Our regret for not having a purse of gold to throw at their feet.

Item XXV.—To the School Board: The privilege of building a new high school after we have departed our school life.

Witnessed in the presence of testators and of each other.

CLASS HISTORY

EDWIN HAYDEN

OUR first record as a class was one of remarkable good fortune in being able to stay together throughout the years. It seemed that the rod which strikes and scatters classes each year at promotion time fell less heavily on our class than on most. The roll of our class today embodies most of those who entered the second grade under Miss Grace Moyer in September of 1920. Incidentally, we can almost claim Miss Moyer as our own, since she also taught us in the fourth and fifth grades.

Continuing on up the ladder of the grades our class made and held a not unenviable record for scholarship, and with this background it entered high school where the history of a large part of the class begins.

We would not forget, however, one member of the original class who went up from our midst while we were in the seventh grade. So let us pause for a moment to pay loving tribute to the memory of Margaret Sears.

We entered high school, 183 strong, and enjoyed the usual initiation into its mysteries. We were taught the high arts of rooting pencils, proposing, taking a bucking, dancing, and singing at the sophomores' pleasure. This all blew over before the mid-year exams, though, and after that we could feel that we really belonged, even if we did still feel a bit awe-struck at the sight of a real, live senior.

By the next fall our number had dwindled to 107, but this only served to increase the individual sense of importance. Because of the kindness of our hearts, though the freshmen were particularly fresh, they got off with remarkably little initiation. During this second year the class as a whole made scholarship records that are by far the best in its history. Clubs were organized, and we joined them. We lost much of our awe for seniors, feeling that we ourselves should be revered as upper-classmen.

When we entered the third year the inevitable knife had pared our number down to 88. This was one of the least momentous years of our history, until late in the spring, when we began to take a part in commencement-time exercises and felt that we were at last being initiated into the mysteries and grandeurs of seniorship. We had regained all our old respect for those fourth year students, seeing what they had come through to gain their present height, for we found that being a real upper-classman entailed hard work and responsibility.

Eighty of us seniors came to Salem High last fall. We were really quite disappointed that we didn't feel entirely different. We also found another cherished dream shattered. We discovered that we were to occupy, not the front rooms in the building, but those which had housed us in the sixth grade. Still we had the real senior home room teachers, so we didn't mind it so much after all. Soon studies and the inevitable round of senior activities so engulfed us that we didn't have time to think about rooms. When at last we found ourselves studying "Hamlet" with Mr. Snapp, we knew we were real seniors. Then came spring activities, and that splendid reception the juniors gave us—now graduation—but much of our history is yet to be written. Let us hope that the future will be as bright as the past.

CLASS POEM

*On a bright and happy day,
The bark of "Thirty" sailed away.
The sails of gold and blue were spun,
That shone and glittered in the sun.
And toward the ever-nearing shore,
Her load of high-browed Seniors bore.*

*They'll conquer self, they'll conquer all,
And with light hearts await Life's call,
And at her bidding some will land,
On cold, stern rocks, or hostile sand.
Some Life's more lenient moments find
And to them, the world seems kind.*

*One by one, we sever dear ties,
Our chain of friendship, broken, lies.
But we'll remember the days gone by,
The happy days at Salem High
The days spent there, within thy walls
The dearest of all, in Memory's halls.*

—Isabel Kesler.

Having practically the same line-up for 1930 that won the Class A Championship in 1929, Salem High stands an excellent chance of repeating last year's success on the diamond. The Crosswhite brothers constitute a formidable battery and are ably supported by clean fielding and timely hitting infield and outfield. Outstanding victories to date include Lynchburg High, Virginia Episcopal, Wytheville, and Randolph-Macon Academy.

Salem defeated Danville 12 to 2 on May 24, and won Western championship in Class A. The game with Woodrow Wilson at Portsmouth is pending, the result of which will decide the winner of State Championship.
